COSTA RICA MISSIONS EXPERIENCE

Day 1 – Depart USA and Arrive San Jose, Costa Rica

Upon arrival, you will be met by a Strong Missions representative who will direct you to your bus and transfer you to the Strong Missions Center for a ministry orientation. After orientation you will have dinner and check in to your hotel.

Day 2 – Missions Activities / Carrillos

Your Missions Activities begin this morning, followed by a visit to the rural town of Carrillos Bajos where you will see a community dance program sponsored by Strong Missions, serve children in a feeding program, and have a brief VBS type activity. Ten years ago, Carrillos had an influx of government housing, and inhabitants of inner city precarios were brought in to take advantage of this opportunity. This brought inner city challenges to the already existing struggles of this rural community.

Day 3 – Los Guido Inner City Ministry

Visit Los Guido de Desamparados inner city ministry, including feeding children, holding a children's activity, and working in a new community park project with the locals. Las Palmas de Los Guido is a precario. Official census numbers for all of Los Guido is just over 20 thousand people, but because there are many undocumented people in these communities who do not wish to be counted, unofficial census numbers reflect more than 40 thousand residents in Los Guido.

Day 4 – Missions Activities / Sarchi

You will continue with your Missions activities in the morning. In the afternoon you will visit the town of Sarchi, known for its woodworking and furniture artisans. You will see an oxcart factory and souvenir shop at Eloy Alfaro in Sarchi, and visit the Else Kientzler Botanical Garden, which showcases more than 2,000 species of exotic tropical plants from around the globe.

Day 5 – Mission Activities / Grecia

Missions activities will be in the morning, followed by a visit to Grecia and its famous farmer's market, with area vegetables, fruits, chicharones, etc., and is perhaps the best farmer's market in Costa Rica. Grecia has been known as the cleanest town in Costa Rica for more than a decade now, and has many shops and good restaurants, as well as a tin metal church that was brought over from Belgium. The church was brought up the mountain dirt roads on oxcarts and reassembled in Grecia.

Day 6 – La Fortuna / Hot Springs / Arenal Volcano

La Fortuna is a small town located near the base of the Arenal Volcano, where you can enjoy picturesque views of the volcano on a clear day. You will visit one of the natural hot springs that are located throughout the area to relax and rejuvenate in the warm and soothing waters.

Day 7 – Morning Worship / Waterfall Gardens

This morning you will have the unique experience of attending a worship service with a local congregation, followed by lunch in La Paz Waterfall Gardens, which features hiking trails, the most famous waterfalls in Costa Rica, an animal sanctuary with over 100 species of animals, and an environmental education program.

Day 8 – Return to USA

Today you will say farewell to Strong Missions and Costa Rica as you return home with many wonderful memories and stories to share.

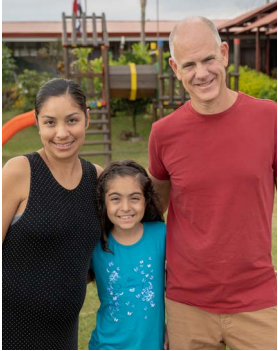

Itinerary is subject to change based on local conditions and occupancy rates.

ABOUT STRONG MISSIONS:

Strong Missions is an interdenominational Christian organization helping the people of Costa Rica, especially children and families, gain basic resources necessary for a healthy life, and has provided safe, affordable and fully organized mission/adventure trips for individuals, families, churches and schools since 2003.

MEET CHARLIE STRONG:

Charlie Strong is originally from Texas, and his wife Angela is from Nicaragua but has lived in Costa Rica most of her life. Charlie earned a Bachelor of Social Work degree from Southwest Texas State University, and a Master of Divinity from Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University. Prior to his work in Costa Rica, Charlie worked in vocational ministry with the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Through Angela's life in Costa Rica, and Charlie's years of missions travel and ministry, they became aware of the multitude of suffering children needing basic opportunities and resources not available to them due to their socioeconomic status. Strong Missions was created in 2003 to lend assistance to such children and their families as well as other deserving people facing struggles due to lower economic status.

They have two daughters, Anna, born in 2009, and Maddy, born in 2019.
